Big Smiles for Extra Money

—Mercury Staff Photos

Lucky Bucks mean big smiles and extra spending money. Two of Friday's big winners were Mrs. John Smiley, 208 West Third avenue, Trappe, and Mrs. John Chicglo, 117A King street. Mrs. Smiley picked up the big winner of the day, while Mrs. Chicglo picked up two Lucky Bucks. Mrs. Smiley's reward for checking the serial number on her $1 bills against the ones listed in The Mercury, was $25; Mrs. Chicglo's winners were worth $3 each.

'Feels Great to Win Cash,' Say 24 Lucky Bucks Winners

Three women who never before won anything, were top winners among 24 Lucky Buck claimants in the first day of the eight-day bill-checking extravaganza.

And all three women said they're going right back out to spend their winnings in order to win again in the easy-to-play contest sponsored by The Mercury and 58 merchants.

Top prize winner — in amount of cash—was Mrs. John Smiley, 208 West Third avenue, Trappe. She had a $25 Lucky Buck.

Top prize winner—in amount of Lucky Bucks—was Mrs. John Chicglo, 117A King street. She cashed in two of the lucky $1 bills, worth $3 each.

Second prize winner—in each category—was Mrs. Raymond Grim, 933 South street. She cashed in a $5 Lucky Buck.

MRS. SMILEY—if you'll pardon the pun—was as happy as her name when she came into The Mercury office clutching the $1 bill with the magical serial number in one hand and the list of serial numbers she had clipped from the paper in her other hand.

"It was really a surprise," she said Friday night. "I never before won anything in my life. I'm going to go out again tomorrow and spent the $25 and get as many $1 bills as possible so I have another chance of winning."

Like Mrs. Chicglo, she was buying something for her daughter. Mrs. Smiley, the wife of a steelworker at

Man Arrested On Charge of Drunk Driving

An area man was arrested Friday night at 7:45 o'clock on a charge of drunk driving after he was involved in an accident at the intersection of Beech and Keim streets.

Charles A. Rick Jr., Pottstown Route 20, was pronounced unfit to drive by a physician.

According to police, Rick was the driver of a car that was in collision with an auto operated by Carl Rubinson, Pennsburg RD 1.

A passenger in the Rubinson car, 12 year old Carol Rubinson, was treated for a minor head injury at Memorial hospital and released.

Rick was held at borough hall in lieu of $500 bail for a hearing before Justice of the Peace Raymond C. Kelley today.

Motor Patrolman Lorin Leuthold made the arrest.

PAY BOOST PLAN OKAYED BY COACHES

Board Grants Staff 25 Percent Of Goal

OUTLOOK BRIGHTER FOR 1961-62 WAGES

The athletic staff of the Pottstown schools Friday night accepted a raise in pay which is less than 25 percent of what they asked.

The staff agreed to accept the $495 raise approved by the school board Monday night. The coaches, who are paid by supplementary contracts, had asked for raises in the 1960-61 school year amounting to $2295.

The acceptance ended a two month fight by coaches to get the larger raise.

A spokesman for the group said, "The coaches feel that the several raises that have been granted are a move in the right direction.

"Havard Fosnocht (superintendent of Pottstown schools) assured the coaches, 'A tangible change will be made in the budget for the athletic staff in 1961-62.'

"Therefore," the spokesman continued, "we feel that a satisfactory solution will be worked out for the 1961-62 budget."

500 ATTEND ST. PIUS X SERVICES

Graduates Are Told Salvation Is Paramount

The Rev. John Foody, Phoenixville, told 98 graduating pupils at St. Pius X High school Friday to "remember, first of all, the talent you received here is the talent to save your soul, and that is the important thing."

Speaking before an audience of near 500 during the schools baccalaureate program, Father Foody told the pupils, "you have waited to meet the world for a long time, now you are going to meet a world that is no paradise . . . a restless world with the notions of God put

Hereford Awards Road Work Contracts

Contracts for road work were awarded Friday night at a meeting of the Hereford township supervisors.

The low bidder for stones was Eastern Lime corporation, Kutztown. Pottstown contractor E. J. Breneman was awarded the low bid for oil.

Bills totaling $478 were ordered paid. Receipts of $30 stemming from traffic violations were received.

Harry Crossley, president, was in charge of the meeting.

ZONING BOARD APPROVES NEW PET HOSPITAL

Lower Pottsgrove Gives Okay to Veterinarian

The Lower Pottsgrove zoning board of adjustment gave approval Friday to James F. Thompson, Phoenixville veterinarian, to construct an animal hospital on Route 422.

Although the area is commercial, a zoning law forbids an animal hospital.

In granting permission, the board specified that the kennel must be indoors and the sewage be discharged southeast of the building.

Thompson told the group that he would begin construction next Spring. The building will be located at South Park drive (the entrance to the Sanatoga speedway) and Route 422.

Harold Brooks, chairman, was in charge of the meeting at Sanatoga Firehall.

Store Partner Hurt Playing Ball

Baron Kessler, 1011 High street, a partner in Kessler's store, was admitted to Memorial hospital Friday with a back injury which occurred during a backyard ball game.

He will remain in the hospital until today for X-rays.

Towns Feared Joint Sewer Costs, Find Going it Alone is Tougher

(Editor's Note: This is the third in a series of articles on multitown sewage systems. It tells how one of many areas has averted the sewage disposal problem by far-sighted planning.)

By GORDON GRIFFITHS
(Mercury Staff Writer)

The city of Pittsburgh was dumping its sewage into the three great rivers which surround it. The State Sanitary Water Board laid down the law, "Stop!"

So with $100 million dollars the Allegheny county Sanitary authority was formed and built a tremendous sewage collection and treatment system for the city and 70 other political subdivisions nearby.

Residents of these areas pay $15 a year, on the average, as sewer rental, for a modern system that was built on a co-operative basis.

Thirty-two boroughs and townships surrounding Pittsburgh wouldn't play ball between 1946 and 1950, when the program was adopted.

THEY WERE afraid Pittsburgh was laying the groundwork for a huge metropolitan district. They decided, "We will be gobbled up by the city and have all its problems."

These municipalities today may wish they had such vague problems rather than the one they are now faced with—sewage disposal.

The boroughs and townships who declined the Pittsburgh offer to join in the authority are now faced with providing individual or co-operative systems.

STUDIES in these areas show rentals may run as high as five times what users are paying in the Allegheny authority district.

One community is charging $108 a year rental for the same service residents "across the road," so to speak, are paying $15 annually.

This community is one which feared in 1946-1950 that it would be "devoured" by the city of Pittsburgh if it joined in a joint authority to build sewer facilities.

John F. Laboon, executive director and chief engineer of the Allegheny authority, gave this background on how Pitts-

101 GRADUATE FROM UPPER PERKIOMEN

More Than 1000 Attend Outdoor Ceremony

Ivan Boxell, a former newspaper publisher turned free lance writer and lecturer, addressed 101 graduates of Upper Perkiomen High school on the topic "Beyond the Skyline" during commencement exercices at New Goshenhoppen park, East Greenville, Friday night.

"If we are to have one world," Boxell said, "we must get rid of the idea that there are different types of people."

"We oldsters have failed to win the world over to the concept of Americanism," Boxell told the graduates. "You have a golden opportunity to correct our failure."

More than 1000 persons were present at the impressive outdoor ceremony.

BRIEF ADDRESSES on the theme "Looking Ahead" were delivered by three pupils: Evonne F. Schultz, Elaine D. Lachman and Barbara R. Nase.

Miss Schultz was the recipient of three special awards: the Perkiomen Valley Women's award, the Upper Perkiomen Alumni Citizenship award and the Berman Sales Science award.

Union Board to Elect Successor to Kulp

Robert G. McCahan, president of the Schwenksville Union School board, said Friday night the board will "probably" elect a successor to the late Claude K. Kulp at a meeting Monday night in the Claude K. Kulp Elementary school, Schwenksville.

Kulp served as secretary of the group. His term will not expire until July, 1961.

McCahan said he has no idea who will be named the new secretary.

Mars Shuns Police Chief Job; Board Awaits 'Official Notice'

West Pottsgrove township is right back where it started in its police search. No cop.

William A. Mars, a former Pottstown patrolman, named by the township police committee, announced Friday he will not take the job.

And the police committee is stymied, because it hasn't received official notice from Mars of his decision, according to Charles H. Frech, police committee chairman.

Mars said in a statement he had not entered into any agreement to accept the job. When Frech heard of this statement, he said

"Why, I personally spoke to Mars on the 'phone and he told me he would accept the job if we offered it to him," Frech said.

* * *

FRECH SAID he didn't know what to do now, because his committee couldn't name another man until Mars officially relayed his refusal.

According to Mars, he is hesitant to get involved in the job while there is still the possibility former chief James V. Guadagno may get reinstated through the courts.

The Fraternal Order of Police is still fighting in behalf of Guadagno, and the former chief is awaiting a hearing concerning the reasons for his dismissal.

Guadagno was relieved of his post April 30, and Mars was selected Monday.

Frech was leaving work at Stanley G. Flagg and company when he heard that Mars, now a West Goshen (Chester county) township patrolman, had refused the position. When a company guard told Frech, it was Frech's first notification.

Elmer E. Hampton, another township commissioner, was buying gasoline at a service station in Pottstown when an attendant took a call from a man in Phoenixville.

The caller asked if it was

'Glorious' Weekend Is On Tap, Fair Weather Expected to Continue

The Weather Bureau didn't even send out the standard "fair and mild" for the weekend.

"Glorious" is the way the forecast is phrased, meaning a lot of sun and moderately cool temperatures.

Little or no rain is seen through next Wednesday, and the only chance of showers is late tomorrow or early Monday, if at all.

Friday's weather was a carbon copy of the cool, sunny conditions which have prevailed since late last Saturday, following a heavy cloudburst.

THE HIGH Friday was 72, following a cool 52 in the morning. These readings are about 9 degrees below normal for the season.

The high was not as hot as expected, because northeast circulation of air brought cooling breezes in from the ocean. In addition, humidity was only 37 percent, a rating that has been fairly constant most of the week.

The low this morning will be from 50 to 55, with the warmest this afternoon in the middle 70s.

If you are going to the seashore, you will find it a bit chilly. The high along the coast is expected to average in the upper 60s.

THIS EVENING, the readings will fall off into the mid 50s again, but will reach the upper 70s tomorrow, with increasing cloudiness by nightfall.

Any rainfall will occur tomorrow night or early Monday, if at all, and it will be just sprinkles, the Weather Bureau predicted.

Temperatures through Wednesday will average near the normal range of 61 to 81, with warmer weather Tuesday and Wednesday.

The moderately cool weather recently, which will prevail

Parole Violator Nabbed In Local Rooming House

A woman parole violator was arrested Friday at 5:15 p. m. at 348 Chestnut street, where she has been rooming for the past month.

Police said Arlene Esther Horner, alias Arlene Poorman, 25, is wanted in Lycoming county for violating the terms of her parole. According to information furnished by State police in Williamsport, the woman left that town May 9 and made her way to Pottstown in a car believed to have been stolen from her father-in-law.

The Horner woman is arrested in Baltimore, Md., in September, 1955, for carrying a gun, according to police, and three months later was arrested in Lycoming county and charged with murder and robbery.

She was picked up at her rooming house by Police Chief Harold Hahn and Motor Patrolman Lorin Leuthold.

Chief Hahn said she'll be kept in the borough jail overnight and turned over to parole authorities from Williamsport today.

Chairman of GOP Sees Rockefeller Back In Contest

WASHINGTON (AP) — A prediction that Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller may soon declare himself back in the race for the Republican presidential nomination came Friday from the party's national chairman, Thruston B. Morton.

Morton held a news conference after the Republican National Committee had given President Eisenhower and Vice President Richard M. Nixon a ringing endorsement. He said he would not be surprised if Rockefeller jumps back into the contest in the next two or three days.

The New York governor quit as a contender last December, saying those who would control the Republican convention did not want any contest made against Nixon.

Last week he said he would be available for a draft, although he conceded Nixon is likely to get the nomination. Wednesday he blasted at the Eisenhower-Nixon record in a lengthy statement outlining his divergent views.

Morton said he doesn't think an announcement that Rockefeller is an active candidate for the nomination "would make much difference." He said most national committee members "feel very definitely the vice president will be our nominee."

Asked if Rockefeller would make a good president, Morton replied: "He would be a better president than those the Democrats are proposing."

Morton didn't give any specific basis for his prediction. But other Republicans voiced the view that Rockefeller would be taking on an almost impossible task in attempting to upset Nixon, who already has more than enough delegates pledged to give him the nomination.

Morton said a resolution endorsing the policies and actions of Eisenhower and Nixon "warmly and enthusiastically" would have been adopted as a matter of course even if there had been no Rockefeller criticism.

Among other things, Rockefeller said "our national defense needs great strengthening."

The committee-approved resolution said members "particularly approve and endorse the measures taken by the President and the vice president for the reservation of the peace and maintenance of national security."

Before Morton made his prediction about Rockefeller, the Republicans got a promise that the New York governor will campaign actively for the GOP ticket this fall.

George L. Hinman, New York national committeeman, told a news conference Rockefeller is not going to take a walk. He gave this assurance despite some crisp words from Morton making it clear Eisenhower is not going to follow one of Rockefeller's suggestions.

Jet Fighters Fail to Down Giant Balloon

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — A giant Navy balloon lugging more than a ton of instruments drifted slowly westward across the Pacific Friday.

Navy radar installations on San Nicolas Island and at Point Arguello, Calif., were tracking its course, but that's all the Navy plans to do at the moment.

Four jet fighters tried to shoot it down Thursday and one of them sent 50 rounds of 20 mm. shells through its thin plastic skin without avail.

The holes apparently are too small to let enough helium escape.

The 40-story-high balloon was still more than 65,000 feet high. Its position was 240 miles due west of San Nicolas.

Officials hesitate to try to shoot it down again for fear of damaging the 2,500 pounds of instruments carried in the balloon's gondola. The instruments have sampled cosmic rays in the upper atmosphere since the balloon was launched at Brunswick, Ga., Sunday.

An effort to recover the gondola will be made when the balloon finally comes down.

On Ike's Tour

A Manila street scene and the famed Corregidor fortress-island are two of the points of interest in President Eisenhower's Philippines stop on his Far East tour. Hosting the U.S. Chief Executive will be President and Mrs. Carlos Garcia.

* * * * * *

President of Philippines Promises Safety for Ike

MANILA (AP)—Philippine President Carlos Garcia said Friday his government will go all out to give President Eisenhower "the biggest and warmest welcome" when he arrives in Manila Tuesday for a state visit.

Garcia told a news conference the reception committee he has appointed from the top ranks of government has "done everything possible" to insure the President a rousing reception.

Employers have agreed to give their workers off-time for the motorcade through the city and hundreds of thousands are expected to line the 10-mile route from the airport to the presidential palace where Eisenhower will stay.

Welcome arches are springing up along the route and a 20-foot statue of the American President is going up beside Manila's City Hall.

One sour note was struck by Mayor Arsenio Lacson of Manila who, despite his tough stand against any protest demonstration, said he may refuse to allow a ticker-tape reception for Eisenhower when the presidential motorcade passes through the city's commercial district. Newspapers quoted Lacson as saying he may decide to enforce the city's anti-littering ordinance.

Lacson was not immediately available for comment, but he still may be miffed at having been left out of the official welcoming committee. He later was included.

Garcia said his executive secretary, who heads the reception committee, met with Ignacio Lacsina, head of the Radical Socialist National Labor Confederation, to dissuade him from plans to stage an anti-American demonstration on Eisenhower's arrival.

The ground has virtually been cut out from under the plan by the refusal of other influential labor groups to take part in it. But Lacsina has said he will go ahead with plans to picket the U.S. Embassy to protest what he says are inequities in U.S.-Philippine relations.

Mayor Lacson has said he will break up the demonstration if it is held and arrest the pickets.

Sunday Sales Law Called Unconstitutional

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Judge Ethan Allen Doty, of Common Pleas court, ruled Friday that the amended Sunday sales law is unconstitutional.

At the same time he granted an injunction restraining the city from enforcing the blue law against a Bargain City, USA, store.

Several weeks ago Judge Raymond Pace Alexander, of Common Pleas court, also ruled that the law was unconstitutional. He had dismissed indictments against several employes of the Bargain City store who had been arrested for selling on Sunday items banned by the law.

But Judge Alexander, however, had not acted on the question of further enforcement as Judy Doty did Friday.

Mrs. Roosevelt Asks Kennedy To Step Down

NEW YORK (AP)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt urges Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts to accept the No. 2 spot on a Democratic ticket headed by Adlai E. Stevenson.

In a statement issued Friday, Mrs. Roosevelt said the vice presidency would give Kennedy, 43, "the opportunity to grow and to learn." He is young enough, she said, "to look forward to many more years of public service."

She asked him to show courage and unselfishness by accepting the vice-presidential nomination.

One of her sons, Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr., has been assisting Kennedy in his campaign.

Mrs. Roosevelt, in urging a Stevenson-Kennedy ticket, said the collapse of the Paris summit talks convinced her that the country needs Stevenson's wisdom, maturity and experience.

Missile Plants Face New Strike Developments

BURBANK, Calif. (AP)—A new strike in the aircraft and missile industry loomed Friday as machinists turned down a new contract offer by Lockheed Aircraft Corp.

A union spokesman said "it looks like a strike Wednesday" by 10,000 employes of the firm's Missiles and Space Division, engaged in four high-priority defense programs.

Lockheed is system manager for the Navy's Polaris submarine missile and the Air Force's Discoverer, Midas and Samos satellites.

The International Assn. of Machinists last Monday struck key missile facilities of Convair Division of General Dynamics, manufacturer of the nation's only combat-ready, ocean-spanning missile —the Atlas.

Twenty thousand workers at Convair's main plant at San Diego, Calif., are expected to be idled Monday by a one-day strike of another union, the Engineers & Architects Assn., which has about 6,000 members. The IAM has said it will not cross the FAA picket lines.

Two other strikes are in the offing. The IAM has authorized a walkout at the Douglas Aircraft plant in Santa Monica, Calif., next week, and the United Auto Workers have set a June 15 strike deadline at Douglas' plant in Long Beach, Calif.

In rejecting the Lockheed offer, made Friday at a meeting of company and union officials in San Francisco, IAM representative Tom McNett said: "They offered a small increase in hourly pay but cut the fringe benefits in such a way that the net result would cost our members anywhere from 10 cents to $1.25 an hour in take-home pay."

He said increases in group insurance costs, reductions in disability payments and elimination of expense pay for workers on out-of-town assignments would mean a cut in pay instead of an increase. The negotiating committee will recommend flat rejection to membership meetings scheduled this weekend.

The union earlier today gave Lockheed a five-day notice of intent to strike if an agreement is not reached.

Eisenhower Visit to Japan Unshaken by Red Outbreak

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower Friday held fast to his decision to visit Japan. His advisers counted on his getting a better reception than his press secretary, James C. Hagerty.

Word of Hagerty's virtual imprisonment in an automobile by a screaming mob of 10,000 in Tokyo reached the White House early Friday morning.

Anne Wheaton, acting press secretary in Hagerty's absence, subsequently told newsmen Eisenhower had been advised and that he expressed gratification that Hagerty and the Americans with him were unharmed.

As for the President's own travel plans, Mrs. Wheaton stated he is going through with his scheduled visit to Japan June 19-22.

When she met reporters late Friday, Mrs. Wheaton said "there is no change in plan." She said the White House is awaiting word from Hagerty before announcing Saturday morning details of Eisenhower's itinerary in Japan.

From the diplomatic standpoint, U.S. officials figured there was no alternative. For Eisenhower to cancel his trip now, they said, would cause untold loss of American prestige throughout Asia.

In Japan, cancellation of the trip would hurt the sentiments of the vast majority of the proud Japanese people who, U.S. officials believe, still want the U.S. President to come. And cancellation would be a smashing blow to the friendly Kishi government and to prospects for Japanese ratification of the pending U.S.-Japanese security treaty.

The issue being made by the Communists over the Eisenhower visit, in fact, has made it all the more important in Washington eyes that the United States not back down.

From members of Congress, if he chose to listen, Eisenhower got conflicting advice. Some members said he should go through with the Japanese visit. Others said he should stay away, at least unless the Tokyo government gives guarantees of his safety.

U.S. authorities counted on such assurances that security for Eisenhower will be adquately maintained when he gets to Tokyo. The State Department said it plans no protest over the Hagerty incident, for which the Japanese government has already apologized.

Authorities here noted news accounts that the Japanese police did not act as vigorously for Hagerty's protection as they would be expected to for a visiting chief of state.

They also figured a great measure of safety would be added upon Eisenhower's arrival in Tokyo by the presence of Emperor Hirohito, who is slated to ride from the airport in the limousine with Eisenhower.

Washington authorities hoped—but were not certain—that the attack on Hagerty would prove to be the high water mark of the Japanese Communist-Socialist opposition to the Eisenhower visit.

Japanese Conferees Accuse Communists

HONOLULU (AP)—Tokyo rioters, trying to disrupt the United States-Japan security treaty, are paid to participate in the demonstrations, two visiting Japanese said Friday.

"These rioters are getting from 300 to 1,000 yen a day plus lunch and medical care if injured," said Keigi Tomatsu, president of the Global Culture Assn. of Tokyo.

Tomatsu and Daisuke Nagatori, chief editor of Global Culture, are en route to Washington, D.C., for conferences with U.S. officials and to explain the disorders.

They said they represent a conservative movement in Japan aimed at combatting leftist elements.

Tomatsu said money for the leftist groups come from the Soviet Union and Red China through a bank in Hong Kong.

Tokyo Mob Act Called 'Pretty Bad' by HST

NEW YORK (AP) — Former President Harry S. Truman said Friday the Tokyo mob action against presidential press secretary James C. Hagerty was "pretty bad," but that he was confident it represented the feeling of only a small minority in Japan.

Truman told newsmen during a stroll that, "I can't understand the attitude of the Japanese. We saved them. The Communists would have been at their throats if it hadn't been for us."

Regarding President Eisenhower's planned trip to Japan, he said: "This is strictly up to the President to decide. I am convinced that whatever decision he makes will be the right one."

Experts Describe Typical Victim Of Possible Heart Attack Death

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Take a serious, hard driving young man who feels guilty if he relaxes for two minutes.

Put him in a challenging job, filled with deadlines, frustrations, worry and discontent.

And you have created an almost perfect climate for a heart attack, a New York City doctor reported Friday.

If this same young man eats a high-fat diet, has heart attack history among his blood relatives, and is a little overweight, "he's a dead duck," said Dr. Henry Russek, consultant to the U. S. Public Health Service.

He and four other heart experts discussed heart and blood vessel disease and occupational stress in a panel session held by the American College of Angiology.

Russek told of a study of 100 young coronary patients and 100 young people with normal hearts for comparison purposes.

Ninety-one of the heart patients had been either holding down two jobs, working 60 hours or more a week, or in a job where they regularly met frustration, fear or emotional stress.

Only 20 in the normal heart group were in this job category.

This kind of person is the sort who meets life's challenges with extremely conscientious work, finds little satisfaction in his accomplishments, and sets new goals for himself as soon as old ones are achieved.

Furthermore, he is probably born to be this way, Russek said. It appears this sort of personality may be genetically determined. It is also possible that parental attitudes and environment heighten this sort of personality.

A later study of 4,000 physicians divided equally into four groups—general practitioners, anesthesiologists, pathologists and dermatologists—confirms these stress relationships, Russek said.

Elmo Smith Trial Transfer Studied

NORRISTOWN (AP) — The Montgomery County court took under advisement Friday a petition to switch the murder trial of Elmo Smith to another county.

The request for a change of venue was argued before Judges William F. Dannehower, E. Arnold Forrest and David E. Goshens by Smith's court appointed lawyer, Gilbert P. High.

Smith, a 39 year old handy man, is charged with murdering Maryann Mitchell, a Manayunk school girl, last December.

High called two lawyers who testified that Smith could not get a fair trial in Montgomery, Philadelphia, Berks, Bucks, Delaware or Lancaster counties because of the wide newspaper and radio coverage the case received.

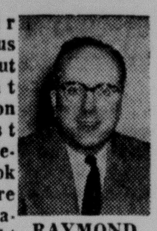
after our friend told us the facts about Alaska that we passed on to you last week, we decided to look up some more of the information that might be of general interest.



RAYMOND ELLIOTT
Exec. V. P.

Russia discovered Alaska in 1741, and named it Russian Alaska. It remained their territory until 1867, when we bought it from them for $7,200,000, (about 2c an acre) and we suppose they thought they were putting one over on us at the price. Most Americans referred to the purchase as "Seward's Folly" because our then Secretary of State, Seward, was supposed to have paid an outlandish price mostly to get the fishing rights in the area for American fishing interests.

Since when, we have taken out more than $400,000,000 in gold alone, and an average of $10,000,000 a year of gold is still being mined, along with about $3,000,000 in coal, $200,000 in tin, $50,000 in silver yearly, to say nothing of many unexplored mineral and petroleum deposits, and huge forest wealth. A recent year's fishing catch in Alaskan waters was valued at $37,000,000.

Our Navy has a 23 million plus acre oil reserve area up there which you might say is literally worth one hundred times the original purchase price of the whole shooting match.

So we really got a bargain in Alaska. In our business it is our pledge to provide you with the most legitimate kind of bargain you can get: Your money working for you in an insured savings account, at the highest possible rate of earnings.

LET'S TALK FACTS on FLYING

by JOHN J. BASCO

in last week's article, I just brushed the surface in explaining the difference between being an airline pilot and a private pilot.

Even if I wrote a thousand articles on this subject, I still couldn't cover it completely, but I can at least point out the major differences.

To begin with, an airline pilot operates a tremendously complicated multi-engine machine. He needs an entire crew to help him do this. Secondly, he and his airplane are usually restricted to large, controlled airports, such as are found at big cities. Thirdly, whenever an airline pilot flies anywhere, he must give ground stations constant radio positions, and he must adhere to a carefully prepared flight plan right down to the minute. Fourthly, the airline pilot often finds that when he reaches his destination he must circle in the air before he can land, due to heavy aircraft traffic around the big-city airport. When he does land, he lands according to instructions received from a control tower.

Make no mistake about it, these airline pilots are professionals—the world's best—and all the complicated radio procedures, controls, etc., are all in a day's work to them.

For the non-professional private pilot, however, things are vastly different. He has no such pressures to contend with. His flying is usually done from a small grass airport. No tower. No flight plans. No radio procedures. No heavy traffic. He takes off, flies, and then lands at a similar airport. He has over 3,000 airports to choose from—many more than the airline pilot with his huge, multi-engine airplane. Sometimes, of course, a private pilot wants or needs to go to a big-city airport, or wants to file a flight plan, etc. That's entirely up to him. But for the average private pilot, there is nothing more complicated about flying his plane than there is about driving his car.

As I said, I could write a thousand articles illustrating the differences between being an airline pilot and a private pilot, but it can all be summed up by simply saying that one is a tough, exacting job, while the other—private flying—is primarily a pleasure. Don't ever confuse the two—there is simply no comparison.

Mars Shuns Police Chief Job

right that Mars had turned down the position. The service station attendant said, "Wait a minute, there's a commissioner here now. I'll let you talk to him."

WHEN THE caller told Hampton the Mars "rumor," it was the first the commissioner heard of the situation.

Mars gave The Mercury a copy of a notice to the commissioners, but a survey last night failed to turn up the original "letter" to the West Pottsgrove officials.

Arline Yost, secretary of the commissioners, knew nothing of Mars' decision until contacted by The Mercury. She had received no communication from the 33 year old West Chester resident who was on the local force between 1951 and 1954.

Hampton said there were 13 other applicants for the police chief's position, and apparently the choice would come from this list.

MARS' ELECTION was unanimous, as all five township commissioners approved him.

Frech said, however, that the vote to put Mars under Police Civil Service coverage was only three to two, and the two dissenting votes might have made Mars shy away.

Here are the reasons Mars gave, as stated in the letter addressed "Road Supervisors, West Pottsgrove township, Stowe, Montgomery county, Pennsylvania":

"I cannot accept an appointment to the position that is under 'fire' and pending a possible court battle by the person who formerly held the post. The position, as it stands at present, would (be) and is, too uncertain, pending a final decision of the court.

"When three of your road supervisors contacted me in person Monday, June 6, I did not enter into any agreement to the effect that I would accept the position, but merely entered into a discussion with them concerning the position. Therefore I think it was very unwise that the report was made public stating that I accepted the position.

"I have not resigned my position with the West Goshen Police department, nor have I any intention of doing so."

Towns Feared Joint Sewer Costs

burgh solved a mighty problem with a mighty answer . . .

SEVENTY OTHER municipalities was the answer, and Pittsburgh had no mind to "gobble them up." It just expected to prove the point that size reduces unit cost, and this is the very problem the "loners" can't overcome.

The Allegheny county Sanitary authority was chartered in March, 1946, of the 71 communities (including Pittsburgh) presently served. Thirty-two communities, extended an invitation to get in on the deal, said, "No," or turned a deaf ear.

The sewage system built by this authority presently serves 1,200,000 persons, besides the Pittsburgh area's gigantic industrial complex.

When Pittsburgh was ordered to stop dumping raw sewage in the Allegheny, Monongahela and Ohio rivers, it made a comprehensive study and decided to get as many towns in the project as possible.

McKEESPORT, New Kensington, Arnold, Dusquesne, Clairton and others refused to sign contracts and as a consequence they will have to build their own plants. Their charges will have to be two times as much "at a minimum," said Laboon.

The entire Allegheny authority system was built in one wallop. Construction was worth $81 million, and the rest went for purchase of land, rights of way, engineering, administrative and legal fees and 2 percent discount on the bond issue.

The Joint authority was set up with three members representing the city of Pittsburgh and two others representing Allegheny county and the other 70 towns.

The other members are cities, boroughs and townships right down the line to the second class.

The whole setup was financed with bonds, and the bonds are being liquidated solely on sewer revenues.

THE SYSTEM took three years to build, covering an area of 215 square miles. The authority did not build the individual collection systems. Each town built its own collection lines and brought them right down to the authority's intercepting lines.

There are 79 miles of intercepting sewers, 39 miles of which is in tunnels, six minor lift stations, local pumping stations and the treatment plant. The treated sewage—the effluent—is emptied into the three great rivers within Pittsburgh.

The largest sewer reflects the enormity and farsightedness of the project—it is ten and a half feet inside diameter.

At the very beginning the authority had to make an important decision. The system was built to accomodate the present and future needs of the municipalities which entered the original agreement.

NO PROVISIONS were made to take care of the recalcitrants if and when they changed their minds.

Laboon said, "We didn't design it like a two-way girdle. We designed it for those who wanted to use it. We couldn't wait for the others to make up their minds. They are just left out.

"Any expansion now is reserved solely for authority members. There's no room for the others now."

Laboon said the recalcitrants didn't join because of political considerations. They were just afraid it was Pittsburgh's first step in creating a greater city.

"Now they are stuck with their own problems," he noted.

THE COMMON figure for an average home in the authority district (using 50,000 gallons of water a year) is $1.25 a month. Pottstown's sewer charges are based on a similar factor — the amount of water used.

Industry in the Allegheny authority district pays as low as 15 cents a thousand gallons of water, while the residential—the top block — pays 30 cents a gallon.

These charges are for sewage disposal, although the formula is based on water consumption.

When a new housing development springs up, the local municipality takes care of building a collection system for its own. Regardless of the amount of sewage entering the authority's intercepting sewers, the local town isn't tapped for extra rates.

The increase in income to cover higher operating costs comes directly from increased individual payments.

McKEESPORT, a "loner," is now building its own system; Sewickley, Coraopolis, Pleasant Hills, and Arnold-New Kensington are also engaged in private systems.

"And they are finding it very expensive," said Laboon.

The reason, Laboon pointed out, is because of size. It is cheaper to operate a big plant and system than it is to run a little plant or system — on the unit cost basis.

"They still have to run 24 hours a day, seven days a week, no matter what size the facilities. That means at four shifts. The labor cost is what gets you," Laboon said.

The second consideration is construction. A smaller plant costs more per unit to build than a larger one.

WOULD LABOON suggest a co-operative sewage venture anywhere, or is it just the answer for a big city like Pittsburgh.

"It's the only way to do it any more anywhere," he said.

Pittsburgh was stuck without the little fellows, and they were stuck without Pittsburgh. They found the answer by getting together.

"The ones outside the authority are the ones that are paying $108," Laboon said.

(Another in a series of multitown sewage systems will follow Monday.)

State Pardons Board Will Hear Appeal

An application for a sentence commutation of a Pottstown man sentenced by the Berks county court is slated to be heard by the State pardons board in Philadelphia June 23.

The request will be made in behalf of Donald L. Arms, who pleaded guilty to an attempted holdup of the Crystal hotel, Reading, June 29, 1959. Arms was sentenced to serve two to four years in Eastern penitentiary.

He also confessed to being AWOL from Camp LeJeune, N.C. and to stealing a car and a revolver from his uncle, John Arms, 635 Water street.

Saturday Sermon

In the Groove

By EDGAR T. CHRISEMER, Pastor
Transfiguration Lutheran Church

"Every Common Bush," Dr. Chrismer's new book, is a collection of 62 inspirational articles. This Saturday sermon is not an excerpt, but the book contains many essays you'll enjoy. It's on sale at H. F. Smith & Son, High and Charlotte streets, The Lighthouse, King and Penn streets, and the Heritage Book Shop, 10 North Evans street.

A startled pedestrian stopped to look skyward as a huge cloud of black smoke, punctuated by darting sparks, billowed up from the roof of the warehouse in Montreal.

A moment later he made a frantic call to the fire department!

Lying in a hospital bed, his fractured leg in a cast, was a fireman sleeping as soundly as a fireman could sleep at 9 o'clock in the evening.

The first signal of the alarm roused him. He listened until he recognized the call numbers for his company.

Then he sprang from his bed, forgetting where he was, and tumbled to the floor in pain!

Instinct and training had made a machine of him!

Sometimes a man's whole life is swallowed up by routine. He lives on a little merry-go-round of habit.

We often describe a person who is skilful in any activity as being "in the groove." But sometimes it is more important to get out of the groove before it becomes a rut!

Part of our life must be spent in routine activity, but to make all of our work a matter of habit is to go through life blindfolded!

The only difference between a rut and a grave is their dimensions!

A movie producer had a beautiful Chinese plaque with curious raised figures on it. One day it was accidentally knocked from the wall on which it was hung, and was cracked across the middle.

He sent to China for six more of these valuable plates, and to ensure an exact match, sent his broken plate as a copy.

Six months later he received the six plates together with the copy. When he opened the carton he stared in astonishment!

The Chinese artists had so faithfully followed his copy that each new one had a crack across it!

Habits are the hardening of the arteries of the mind!

You won't skid if you stay in a rut, nut neither will you get anywhere but the end of a rut!

Any man who spends his life following the grooves society has laid down is bound to be disappointed.

A wealthy merchant complained: "I've spent all my life making money to get food to eat and clothes to wear. The food doesn't agree with me and the clothes don't fit. I guess I am a failure!"

The life of every great man is the history of his refusal to stay in the groove! The only way to get out of routine ruts is to extend the rim of your horizon!

An American, visiting in France, came upon a scene where a large church was being erected.

He approached three stone masons, one after the other. Of each he asked this question: "What are you doing?"

The first replied: "I'm cutting stone." The second said: "I'm earning seven francs a day." The third answered: "I'm helping to build a great cathedral!"

A task without vision is drudgery!

The greatest adventure in life is to escape from the prison of routine!

Men who refuse to accept the boundaries of habit and convention have extended the rim of their world!

Some years ago Howard Carter discovered the mummy of a young prince of Egypt, Tutankhamen, preserved in a gold coffin. That is what Moses would have been—a mummy in a gold coffin—if he had not extended the rim of his world. He got out of his rut to help shape the destiny of the world!

That is the choice every man faces: to get out of his groove, or be some kind of mummy!

Believe In Yourself

"A man lives by believing something: not by debating and arguing about many things"

—THOMAS CARLYLE

HOW are things with you?

Debatable? Argumentative? Confusing?

Or can you count on the calming strength of belief—in yourself . . . in your aims . . . in your religion?

You'll find a belief that gives new strength to your life when you Worship together this week.

PUNKIN CORNERS,

Editor, The Mercury,
Dear Sir 'n' Brother:

Wal, I see by the papers where for a fast visit to Mackinac island in Lake Michigan Senator Kennedy traveled by plane, fast car and boat. The presidential hopeful must believe in that old nursery rhyme's advice: "Jack be nimble, Jack be quick!"

After her first visit to a U.S. supermarket, Machiko Kyo, a Japanese film star, remarked: "Wonderful! I felt like buying everything!". That, Miss K., is the general idea.

And say: An English housewife found a fox snoozing inside her washing machine. Pretty sly at that—no dog would ever think of looking for it in there!

Progress Stymied by Conformists?

We're Just Going Along

To the Editor: One of the most disturbing developments in American life is the ever-increasing trend toward conformity.

Too often these days a person is held suspect if he dares to do things differently.

The point is that individualism often brings us great gains and the individualists of our country have pioneered more success and progress than the conformists

For the conformist basically is either afraid to go his own way or lacks the imagination or intelligence which allows him to dare to be different.

Why?

To the Editor: Why in the name of dignity and self-respect do we persist in having diplomatic relations with Russia after its sickening vilification of the President? This goes for Cuba, too.

Delinquency Everywhere

To the Editor: Recently Philadelphia and other large cities had an outbreak of juvenile crime of the most ghastly and vicious kind.

However, we people in the small communities need not congratulate ourselves too quickly.

We may have escaped the heaviest impact of the juvenile crime problem but we are not entirely free.

The FBI reports that last year juvenile crime increased twice as fast in small communities as in large.

They blame this on excessive coddling of teenage criminals and on parental irresponsibility.

Be Firm With Youth!

To the Editor: There should be no hesitation to be firm with erring youth.

The community stands in the place of a teacher to its young.

Just as a "soft" teacher is despised by his pupils, so will an irresolute community be held in contempt by teenage gangs that find their "power" unchallenged.

Favors Medical Care

To the Editor: Let me say that I favor a medical plan which will adequately take care of all of our citizens over the age of 65.

In fact, I favor a health plan which will adequately take care of all our citizens, because I believe that the people of our nation, the health of our people, are worthy of that kind of investment.

It is a sign of civilization to take care of your old people.

If our legislators were sincere, they would not indulge in this kind of economic gobbledegook.

They would find out what it would cost to serve our old people in dignity and provide both money and facilities.

When State Will Perish

To the Editor: Our government is strong only because it is built upon freedom. Our nation has flourished because individual initiative has been encouraged. There is great power in Washington because our country prospers through a free enterprise system.

The government counts on a solid, productive people for strength.

When the people are corrupted to believe their salvation springs from the government, both the people and the state will perish.

RED SKELTON has called off his Summer visit to Moscow, where he was set for a series of special performances with State department approval. The trip was canceled because of Comrade Khrushchev's behavior at the Summit. Now if someone with equal good sense in the State department—or anywhere else—will cancel President Eisenhower's pointless journey to Japan, Korea, the Philippines and other spots where he's apt to run into big trouble, it will indicate that the nation considers its Commander-in-Chief as important as a comedian.

Louis Prima is having the kind of troubles you might like to have: Yacht troubles. He bought a yacht for Keely Smith, paid too much for it (according to the experts), then got a bill for a few thousand more dollars for "extras," and discovered some of the equipment doesn't work properly. As a topper, the captain quit!

The late Ali Khan's friends wonder what will happen about his half-million dollar deal with noted horsewoman Liz Whitney Person. There was no contract involved; it was just an agreement between friends.

There is no formula for happy marriage, even though my wife and I have been married for 38 years. We just love each other—and we're lucky. Our only arguments have been about the stage. I guess there's no lesson in that for anyone."

PARISIANS ARE talking about the recent suicide attempt of a young and very promising film actress, Pierrette Pradier, considered the great "find" in Michele Morgan's new movie, "Les Scelerats." Pierette grew despondent over an unhappy romance with singer Felix Marten, who caused Edith Piaf many a heartache after she gave him his start by featuring him in her revue.

Lenny Bruce has shown his film, "The Leather Jacket," to chums in the business, and they're raving about it. It's a silent flicker he wrote and played in over a year ago.

Hollywood has made some bids for the story, but Lenny wants to produce it as a full-length movie, with sound. In the picture, he plays a poor newsboy who saves every penny he can to buy a black leather jacket so he can become "one of the gang."

The Worry Clinic

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

LEON K., aged 27, is a very enthusiastic clergyman.

"Dr. Crane, I have a problem," he began with a rueful smile, "and it concerns my own profession.

"For example, when Billy Graham was invited to our city last year, I was fortunate to be on the reception committee.

"But I was puzzled by the action of some of the older clergymen who occupy leading pulpits, for they seemed lukewarm toward his coming.

"Two of them even 'damned him by faint praise', saying they disliked sensationalism by a man of the cloth.

"Yet Billy Graham's campaign caused more young people to join our various churches during his month's stay here, than all of us city clergymen had converted in the past three years, combined.

"Why do older clergymen act so luke warm toward great pastors like Billy Graham, Bishop Sheen, Oral Roberts and the like?"

THE BIBLE tells us even the angels grew jealous and feuded, which is how Satan got started.

And you Bible students will recall that Christ's own Apostles quarreled over who should get the choice reserved seats in Heaven.

Those Apostles had enjoyed personal contact with Jesus for three years, yet they were coveting each other's prestige in Heaven.

So don't get upset when an occasional clergyman shows jealousy.

Indeed, some clerics who teach our children the Ten Commandments, will turn right away from the catechism class and indulge in covetousness, thereby violating one of those same Ten Commandments.

I HAVE thus heard clergymen express irritation at drawing a $6000 salary when professional men like doctors, morticians and lawyers were collecting $15,000 annually. But that $15,000 was "gross" not "net."

An American cleric on $6000 salary gets the equivalent of a $15,000 gross income, so the seminaries might well teach theological students such basic economies.

And some clerics "bear false witness," thus violating another of the Ten Commandments.

This is done when they malign great national prophets like Bishop Sheen or Billy Graham or Oral Roberts from sheer jealousy. By innuendo and sly backbiting they bear their false witness, as by saying:

"He is a sensationalizer" or "He commercializes religion."

Christ gave us a good yardstick for testing Billy Graham, Bishop Sheen and Oral Roberts against local pastors when he said: "By their fruits ye shall judge them."

THREE DECADES ago George and Gracie were household words in vaudeville. Then they zoomed to the very top in show business and television kept them there.

"But," said George, "I owe my thanks to Jack Benny for my return to night clubs after all those years. When Jack played his first engagement at the Flamingo hotel in Las Vegas, and was a stunning smash—went on to play concerts, and return engagements, I figured I had to make a try for it.

"Jack egged me on, of course, and I took the bait with much misgiving, I may add. But to my pleasant surprise things went well from the first. Maybe this place was lucky for me. Anyway it proved something that Gracie's been telling me for years. That is, that I can entertain without her. I guess it surprised me as much as it did anyone."

Senators Pushing Spy Into Sky

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
Associated Press Observer

A powerful Senate committee Friday recommended an 84-million-dollar boost in funds to rush into operation a spy-in-the-sky satellite designed to lay bare for U. S. military officials the most secret Soviet missile pads.

Members of the Senate Appropriations Committee stressed that halting of U2 spy plane flights made urgent the fastest possible development of the camera-equipped Samos reconnaissance satellite. Under present plans, the Samos system is due for readiness in about three years.

This was perhaps the most important action the committee took behind closed doors when it wrapped up for Senate action a $40,384,897,000 money bill to build up U. S. defenses in the fiscal year starting July 1.

Generally, the committee endorsed the decisions of a subcommittee which made wide changes from the House bill and from Eisenhower administration requests.

However, it added $218,800,000 to the subcommittee's total—chiefly $83,800,000 to speed the Samos project and another 125 million for equipping the Army with the most modern weapons.

Over-all the Senate bill is more than a billion dollars bigger than administration requests and the House's total.

The full Appropriations Committee accepted a $33,800,000 increase the House voted for the Samos. And for good measure, the Senate group tacked on an extra 50 million dollars. The basic amount—to which the nearly 84 million was added—was kept secret on security grounds.

After the meeting broke up, Sen. John Stennis (D-Miss) disclosed the group had voted formally to ask "the executive branch to take immediate action to approve development of an operational Samos reconnaissance system."

Stennis said Samos has high priority now, but only as a research program—"no decision has been made to push it as an operational military system."

Stennis said Eisenhower's order last month canceling the U2 flights—spying which contributed to collapse of the summit meeting and deepended U.S.-Soviet tension—leaves the Samos as "the only foreseeable means by which we can obtain accurate and timely information about Soviet military installations."

Sen. Dennis Chavez (D-NM) said he thinks the Samos is "better than the U2 as an intelligence method."

Chavez said Eisenhower "has ample authority to use any funds he needs for this purpose" in an emergency situation.

POSTERS—As the walls came tumbling down—those of the old Strand theater at High and Charlotte streets—a brief glimpse of Pottstown's entertainment past came into view when workmen uncovered a score or more posters pasted on the wall of Binder's drug store. F. Brooke Binder, owner of the store, was unaware of the posters. He had no idea how long they were there. He added that the building he now occupies was biult in 1878 and the Strand in 1925-26. The posters were worn by the ravages of time. Torn and battered, it was impossible to tell what they advertised but Walter Skull, a salesman at Block's furniture store, who informed The Mercury of the find, said one of them might have been a circus poster.

Your Health

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

MORE THAN your bite may be affected if your lower jaw is out of alignment.

Headaches, earaches, ear noises, dizziness and difficulty in swallowing might be traced to the fact that the lower jaw is out of position.

Clicking of the lower jaw while you are chewing is another symptom of this type of problem.

Some persons, however, have severe misalignments without experiencing any pain at all. Others have considerable discomfort with only a minor deviation.

When pain does occur, it generally is due to muscle spasm. A doctor can eliminate the pain by injecting a local anesthetic into the troublesome muscle or by spraying ethyl chloride on the painful area.

Some persons with lower jaws out of position have developed the condition over a period of years. The change has been gradual and thus the musculature has suffered some degenerative changes.

Correction of the lower jaw's position is advisable in most cases.

This usually takes considerable time, since new habit patterns must be established by the patient. Some doctors recommend that a prosthetic device be used to correct the alignment. A recent report in the Archives of Otolaryngology states that a high percentage of cases have been treated successfully in this manner.

'Glorious' Weekend Is On Tap, Fair Weather Expected to Continue

over the weekend, is due to this combination of factors:

A RIDGE of high pressure extends from the northeastern part of the country into the Gulf of Mexico. This ridge formed last Sunday in the Northern Great Plains and moved into the Hudson Bay area, pushing cool, dry air down from Canada.

The ridge will give way eventually to a low pressure system starting over the Great Lakes, which will be moving slowly eastward.

The weather has been a boom for farmers and construction workers, harried during May by an overabundance of rainy days. It has rained only a few hours since June began more than ten days ago.

The high this month is an 82 recorded last Thursday. This doesn't even equal the warmest day of the year to date, April 23, when the thermometer reached 87.

The moderately cool weather is attested to by high daily readings this week that haven't touched 80, normal for this time of year.

The weatherman stepped out of his jurisdiction and asked for safe driving, as he recognized the lure of travel today and tomorrow.

Life in Bomb Shelter Is Studied As Group of 30 Undergoes Test

PITTSBURGH (AP)—How do 30 men, women and children feel living in a 12-by-20 foot bomb shelter? The big problem is chasing boredom.

The cubicle became home for the group last Sunday in an experiment by the American institute for Research for the Office of Civil Defense Mobilization.

The experiment is to learn the most efficient way to construct bomb shelters and conduct life in them in the event of a real disaster.

The group includes several families. They range in age from 7 to 72. All volunteered for the test and will get $50 each.

The oldest is Miss Laura B. Ellis. "I still have a lot of curiosity and I figure I might as well know what's going on," she said on entering the shelter.

Water for drinking and food preparation during the two-week test will be limited to 400 gallons, about one gallon a day per person.

There is running water for washing, but there is no sink. The washing will be done in buckets. Drinking and cooking water is metered.

There is a carefully selected stock of canned cooked foods which need only heating on a two-place electric stove

The bunks are slung four-high around the walls. They were not designed for comfort. They are 6 by 2 feet and the mattresses are thin.

A team of doctors and scientists watch the shelter refugees constantly through one-way windows. Barring illness or other emergency the group will not withdraw until June 19.

So far no health problems have occurred. The only casualties have been a woman splashed with hot coffee and a girl who touched a hot light bulb.

Conversation is monitored and recorded, and the minute-by-minute sound level is metered.

There is only one toilet in the shelter. Even its frequency of use is being recorded to test the adequacy for a group this size.

Life in the shelter is under the direction of Edward Yackel, the group leader, from Brooklyn, N. Y. There's a food committee, recreation committee, and the Conelrad committee that keeps posted on emergency news.

The most popular recreation is talking. Dr. James W. Altman, the experiment director, says it's mostly light talk with lots of kidding.

Of the games available cards are the most popular. There are also chess and checkers. Nobody minds a little kibitzing.

'Feels Great to Win Cash,' Says 24 Lucky Bucks Winners

Alan Wood Steel company, Conshohocken, collected her Lucky Buck as change at Roth's Shoe store, 322 High street, after purchasing a pair of shoes for her three year old daughter, Cynthia.

Mrs. Smiley held the $1 bills she received as change in her hand until she left the store, then checked them against the list she had clipped from The Mercury Friday morning.

"I wanted to be prepared in case the stores didn't have a copy of the list," she laughed, "and it certainly paid."

MRS. CHICGLO was equally as surprised after her past record at not winning things. "I don't think I ever in my life won anything before this. I was just one of those unlucky people who would buy a chance and forget about it — knowing my number would never come up."

Well, her number came up yesterday while shopping for toys for her two daughters, Donna Jean, 6, and Sue Ann, 3, at Town Toy company, 363 High street.

The toys were supposed to be for Sue Ann's birthday next Wednesday, but after winning twice . . . "well, I can get them more toys next week—and try and win again."

Both children were playing with the toys last night — a wiggly thing of wire that crawls up the wall—while their Mother was deciding where to shop today in her quest for more prize winners.

Unlike Mrs. Smiley, she wasn't prepared with her own list, and used the list in the store. But she'll be prepared today.

MRS. RAYMOND Grim picked up her Lucky Bucks at Marguerite Dress Shoppe, 23 North Hanover street. "I was buying a dress, and certainly never expected to win," she reported.

Since she already purchased the dress, she's going to put the money towards a pair of shoes to go with the dress. "And maybe I'll get another Lucky Buck in my change," she laughed hopefully.

Not as lucky, but just as happy as their unexpected windfalls were 21 winners who picked up $3 each.

And you can pick up a Lucky Buck just as easily as Friday's winners. There are still 289 Lucky Bucks in circulation worth a total of $1547.

INCLUDED in the Lucky Bucks are the $100 bonanza put in circulation Friday and not cashed, the $100 final day special, and five Lucky Bucks worth $50 each.

One $50 Lucky Buck will be placed in circulation each day, beginning today.

But remember, all Lucky Bucks must be cashed by Saturday.

Lucky $3 winners were:

Donald Rhoads, Pottstown RD 1; Mrs. Marie S. Lachman, 560 King street; Mrs. A. A. Middlecamp, 222 South Hanover street; Robert Basile, 307 Race street, Stowe; Eleanor Kanach, Pottstown RD 3; Mrs. Edna Kulp, Gilbertsville RD 1; Mrs. Clyde Ludwig, 16 Glasgow street, Stowe; Mrs. David Swinehart, 234 North Evans street; Mrs. Fred Moses, Douglassville RD 1.

Also, Charles K. Gehret, 518 North Evans street; Mrs. Wilmer C. Knight, Pleasant View road, Sanatoga; Mrs. LeRoy B. Young, Hendricks; Mrs. Hannah Dickenson, 622 Walnut street; Mrs. William C. Moser, Pottstown RD 3; Carmaletta Mauger, Glasgow street, Stowe; Helen Seder, 349 West Chestnut street; Mrs. Henry Bailey, 361 Laurel street; Mrs. Joseph Nowakowski, 11 Berks street, Stowe; Douglas Skean, Pottstown Route 20; Douglas DeBlase, 185 Sunrise lane; and Valiza Stumbris, 228 Bryton street.

Work At Home + At Church = Happy Life

But, Says Pastor's Wife, Being A Mother Is Most Important

(Editor's Note: This is another in a series of articles on the wives of Pottstown ministers.)

Daily effort in the home, and activity in the church are a major part of the lives of nearly all wives of pastors.

June Ebbert, wife of the Rev. Dr. C. W. Ebbert, pastor of St. Paul's United Church of Christ, will tell you that the combination makes a full and happy life.

"But," Mrs. Ebbert adds, "it's true you have to be a mother first and a minister's wife second.

The Ebberts have been in Pottstown for seven years and in that time a new church has been built, just three doors away from the parsonage on North Franklin street, and the congregation of St. Paul's has doubled from 150 to 300 members.

June Ebbert has shared with her husband in the efforts leading to this success.

SHE EARLY became aware of the problems and work involved in furthering the church. Her family "was very active in the church" in Philadelphia where she was raised.

The Rev. Ebbert was assistant pastor at the church she attended. They were married in 1951, on June 22, the day that is a birthday for both.

The Rev. Ebbert was ordained in 1950 in the Evangelical United Brethren church, after graduation from Albright college and the Evangelical school of theology, Reading. The pastor earned his doctorate in sacred theology last Spring at Temple university, Philadelphia.

The couple's first pastorate was one of 150 persons at Weissport, Carbon county, and lasted two years.

In 1953 the Rev. Ebbert took a "privilege of call" to come to the Evangelical and Reformed church in Pottstown, and after a year here he was installed officially as a minister in the Reformed church.

Mrs. Ebbert is happy with Pottstown. She says, "I like this much more than in the city, even though I didn't want to leave Philadelphia at the time."

The couple has two children, William, 7 years, and Alyce, 4. William is completing his second year at the Franklin Elementary school.

Mrs. Ebbert's activity in the home has limited the time she can devote to church work, but not completely. She turns the training she received in a year at a Philadelphia business college to good use in helping to put out the church's monthly paper and in doing secretarial work for several organizations within the church.

She also is active in the Women's guild and the Mothers class, and on June 20 she will start teaching the Intermediate class in Bible school.

(Another article in this series will appear next Saturday.)

Church Conducts Annual Conference of The Arts

The third annual conference of the Lutheran society for Worship, Music, and Arts was held at Muhlenberg college, Allentown, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

The Rev. Dr. Edgar S. Brown Jr., former pastor of Grace church, Pottstown, and now executive director of the Department of Worship of the United Lutheran church in America, participated as one of 12 commission chairmen.

His area was Liturgical Worship and his subject "The Lutheran Liturgy Should It Be Revised?"

Area pastors attending full or part time included the Rev. Richard G. Hoffert, pastor of Grace church, and the Rev. William Leopold, pastor of Jerusalem church, Schwenksville.

THE 175 PEOPLE in attendance heard a concert of Baroque and contemporary music by members of the Bethlehem Bach choir, the Allentown Community chorus, and the Muhlenberg College choir. An organ recital was rendered by Gordon Jones, organist at St. Peter's church, New York City.

Two dramatic performances, "House by the Stable" and "Grab and Grace" were presented by the Lutheran foundation for Religious drama, and another performance, "Waiting for Godot," was presented by the Muhlenberg Christian association.

THE GROUP also heard the Rev. Dr. Richard Luecke, Missouri synod pastor, present and discuss two papers, "Grace and Grammar" and "Sacrament and Syntax" under the general theme "Tongues of the Spirit."

There were panel discussions on hymn writing and the arts and a tour of old Moravian buildings in Bethlehem with a lecture there by a Mount Airy Seminary professor, Theodore Tappert.

The group visited the Allentown Art museum for a discussion of "Christian Art of the Second Century."

The group is made up of clergymen and laymen interested and participating in worship, music and the arts. The group explores architecture, hymnology, organs, choral music, drama,, sculpture, painting, literature, and theology.

New Mrs. America Is Deeply Religious

FT. LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) —Mrs. George E. Murphy of Kentland, Ind., was crowned Friday night as Mrs. America.

The brunette, 31, mother of four sons and a daughter, said she was honored and grateful.

"I'm going to begin my reign by going to church and thank God for the privilege of living in America."

She was selected as the nation's top homemaker over entrants from 49 other states and the District of Columbia.

Days of grueling contests in cooking, hair-styling, interior decorating and laundering preceded the choice of the statuesque matron who is 5 feet 8½ inches tall and weighs 140 pounds. Mrs. Murphy wore a white evening gown and held a sheaf of red roses as her victory was announced.

Marriage Performed As Faith Triumphs

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP)—It was honeymoon time at the suburban Osseo Nursing Home Friday even though the bride was confined to a wheel chair.

An invalid since 1952, Frieda Heubner, 74, married Otto Bursch, 87, in a ceremony at the home Wednesday.

Mrs. Heubner, a widow for 12 years when she suffered a stroke eight years ago, moved to the home in March and met Bursch.

Romance sprouted almost immediately. Otto would wheel her into the garden when the weather was pleasant. They read Lutheran prayer books together inside the home at other times.

First word that home attendants had of the impending ceremony came from the marriage license publication Saturday.

Although her right side is paralyzed, Frieda managed carefully to place her right hand into Otto's as the Rev. George Krebs read the ceremony.

Otto has one goal, to help Frieda win her way out of the wheel chair.

"When I first took her hand she couldn't move it," he said. "Now she can, and that gives me hope that some day soon she'll be walking again."

NEW PARTY FEARED

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP)—Gov. Luis Munoz Marin said Friday the creation of a Catholic party in Puerto Rico would be an "error that can have grave consequences on the tranquility of life in Puerto Rico."

He did not elaborate on his remark, made at a news conference.

Spokesmen for a group calling itself the Christian Action party say they have active organizers in 50 towns throughout the island. Roman Catholic Bishop James P. Book Lover Becoming Vanishing American Studies of American book-reading habits are certainly "not encouraging" says the Catholic Digest.

The magazine points to a recent study which unearthed the fact that only 17 percent of American adults regularly read books.

The same poll taken in other countries revealed that twice as many Austrailians and three times as many Englishmen read books as do Americans.

Even American college graduates are not reading books. The pollsters discovered that only 26 percent of U.S. college graduates had read a book during the preceding year.

Above all we would like to be regarded as friends, equipped by knowledge, training and experience to be of special service in time of need. We are proud that we are able to demonstrate our friendship in a practical way.

Our modern design prohibits old fashioned lot enclosures, mounds and grave beds—obstructions that would require expensive hand labor. Instead, the graves are trimmed regularly and at not cost to the family.

Parable of Prodigal Son Shows Virtues Found In True Humility

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

TODAY'S LESSON is a parable Jesus told in His Sermon on the Mount. It is probably one of the best known of all these sayings. It is called The Parable of the Prodigal Son, although the word prodigal is not mentioned in the Bible account.

According to the dictionary, a prodigal is one who is "extravagant in expenditure, lavish, wasteful; a spendthrift; one who is lavish or wasteful."

The subject of our lesson was such a one, but he saw the error of his ways and received forgiveness, as we do when we pray sincerely and fervently to God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.

"A certain man had two sons, And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living."—Luke 15:11-12.

Shortly after this the younger son journeyed to a far city, and there "wasted his substance with riotous living" until he had no money left. Then a dreadful famine fell on the country, so he "went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine. And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat; and no man gave unto him."—Luke 15:14-16.

We might think that his employer would have seen his plight and helped him, but he did not. Today, in our own country and many others, we are asked to contribute clothing and money to help poor people in our own land and in many others.

At last he "came to himself" and thought of his father, whose hired servant always had enough to eat and to spare. Then he said, "I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee, And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants."—Luke 15:17-19.

So he went home. His father, seeing him coming, ran to meet him and "fell on his neck, and kissed him." The son confessed his faults and his father had him clothed in rich garments, put a ring on his finger and shoes on his feet.—Luke 15:20-21.

Then his father had a sumptuous feast prepared, saying "Let us eat, and be merry: For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found."—Luke 15:23-24.

The older son, who had stayed home and worked with his father, was angry at all these festivities in honor of his wayward brother. But his father told him:

"Son, thou art ever with me, and all I have is thine. It was meet that we should make merry, and be glad; for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again; and was lost, and is found."—Luke 15:25-32.

There are two roads to travel as we live our lives on earth. One is the "straight but narrow path" of righteousness, which will bring its own rewards. The other is the "Wide gate" which Jesus said "leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat."—Matthew 7:13.

Let us all pray that we may follow the path that leads to right living and happiness.

The Two Ways — ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON — By Alfred J. Buescher

Scripture—Matthew 7:13-14; Luke 15:11-32.

"A certain man had two sons, and the younger of them said to his father, Give me the portion of goods that falleth to me." So he divided his possessions.—Luke 15:11-12.

The younger son took his share and journeyed to a far country and "wasted his substance with riotous living" until he had none left. He hungered in a famine.—Luke 15:14.

He hired himself to a man who sent him into his field to feed the swine. "And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat."—Luke 15:15-16.

He decided to go back home. When his father saw him from far off, he ran to meet and embrace him.—Luke 15:18-20.

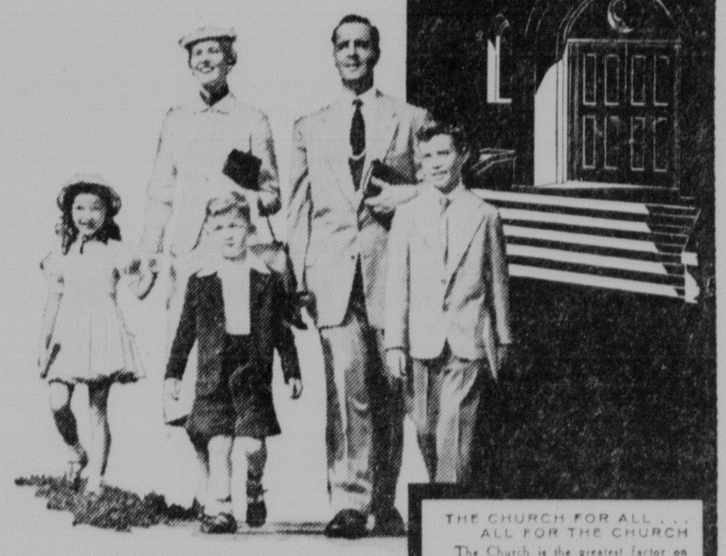
sufficient unto the day



Are you a worry expert?

Some people gather up all the worries of the past and combine them with the anxieties of the future. These they add to the burdens of the present — a huge bundle indeed.

What a difference it would make in their peace and happiness if they could take each day as it comes.

Jesus said, "Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof." He not only taught but He lived this lesson. Toil and misunderstanding filled the days of His ministry. Yet He met each one with calm assurance. Forgetting the past, He faced each tomorrow with inward peace.

This peace He willed to His followers through all the ages. Come to church and learn how to make this heritage your own.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

They uncovered 30 shells from six to 18 inches in length, apparently left by Union forces who ringed the city in the Siege of Petersburg. Army officials said the shells probably are still dangerous.

Accountant Admits Filing False Returns for Doctor

PHILADELPHIA, (AP) — Dr. James A. Lehman, prominent surgeon accused of evading $284,198 in federal income taxes, testified Friday at the trial of himself and his wife. He said he learned last March that his accountant filed false returns on his behalf for the years 1953 through 1957.

The doctor, testifying in U.S. District court, said he didn't know how much money he had made, nor had he bothered to find out. He added that he hired people to handle these financial matters.

Dr. Lehman paid the money the government claims is due, plus interest, two days before the trial started.

The accountant, Edmund DeLuca, wept on the stand as he took sole responsibility for the filing of the false tax returns.

"I'm not taking the rap," said DeLuca. "I'm not taking the blame. I am to blame."

DeLuca said he received $500 a year to handle the Lehman's joint tax returns. He said that he had started to underestimate the doctor's income around 1949, but that neither of the Lehmans knew he was doing this.

DeLuca testified that Dr. Lehman and his wife signed blank tax returns and he filled in the figures. Dr. Lehman said this was so. He said that he had made no attempt to "defeat or evade" income taxes.

Dr. Lehman said he performed about 1500 operations a year and examined an additional 750 patients, who didn't need surgery.

DeLuca has been indicted on a charge of assisting the Lehmans in filing false income tax returns. He has pleaded innocent to this charge, claiming "I did not aid or abet, I did it without their knowledge."

DeLuca did not say why he allegedly falsified the returns.

Thursday a number of character-witnesses testified for Dr. Lehman. The witnesses included John B. Kelly, prominent brick manufacturer and father of Princess Grace of Monaco. Dr. Lehman removed Princess Grace's appendix last year and operated on Kelly just before the trial started.

The government rested its case and Thomas D. McBride, the defense lawyer, completed his Friday afternoon. Judge Harold K. Wood said both sides would sum up when the trial resumes Tuesday before a jury of eight women and four men.

Italian Beauty Named Miss Europe

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Curvaceous Anna Ranalli of Italy Friday night was elected Miss Europe of 1961.

An international panel of judges selected the beauty from San Benedetto del Tronto in competition with queens from 15 other countries.

Named to her court of honor in the following order were Miss Germany, Rita Simon; Miss Sweden, Monica Abrahamson; Miss Austria, Luise Kammermayer; and Miss France, Brigitte Barazer de Lannurien.

A crowd at Beirut's lavish new casino broke into cheers and a band struck up the Italian national anthem for the winner.

Actress Files Divorce Suit

MARSHALLTOWN, Iowa (AP) —Jean Seberg, 21, who stepped out of a Midwest high school into movie stardom, moved Friday to end her marriage of less than two years.

The actress filed suit in Marshall County District Court for a divorce from Francois Moreuil, 26, French lawyer and movie director. She charged cruel and inhuman treatment.

Miss Seberg was not in court when the petition was filed. She is in Paris, where she is making a film entitled "Recreation" directed by Moreuil.

* * *

In a statement issued through her attorney here, Miss Seberg said she would carry out her commitment to complete the film her husband is directing.

"I do this," she said, "because despite our personal problems, I still believe in his — Moreuil's— talent and ambitions."

Miss Seberg and Moreuil were married here Sept. 5, 1958, in the small church she attended as a child and where she once taught Sunday school.

They have since lived most of the time in France, where they met on the Riviera in 1957 while she was filming "Bonjour Tristesse."

Miss Seberg said in filing her divorce petition that she and her husband had "mutually discovered that our backgrounds, our upbringing, our ways of life and many of our interests are incompatible.

"We have mutually decided," she added, "that it is best that we part. There is no bitterness involved—only sincere regret."

As a high school girl here, Miss Seberg was chosen by movie producer Otto Preminger, after a worldwide talent hunt in 1956, to play Joan of Arc in his movie, "Saint Joan."

Ike's Big Brother Claims Golf Supremacy

LONDON (AP)—Dwight D. Eisenhower's big brother Edgar declared Friday "I can take the President on at golf any time, and beat him."

The eldest Eisenhower, a Tacoma, Wash., lawyer, made his boast at the airport before flying to Dublin for a vacation.

"We have a game together whenever we can," he told reporters. "I usually beat him."

"Now, now, Edgar," said his wife, Lucy. "Let's say you beat him sometimes."

Eisenhower, 71, said he probably will retire pretty soon and "Dwight and I can then get down to some serious golf."

Major Percentage of Poultry Kill Inspected by Federal Government

Harrisburg, (AP)—Nearly all of Pennsylvania's poultry meat production is now coming under Federal inspection.

The Federal program has been in effect less than 18 months, but the switchover from the State to Federal approval system has been virtually completed in the State.

Federal law requires all birds slaughtered for interstate commerce to be Federally inspected. When the U. S. program became compulsory Jan. 1, 1959, some eight million pounds of poultry meat were inspected by commonwealth investigators.

Last year, the first full year of the Federal program, the State-inspected total dropped to 50,000 piunds. Though much of Pennsylvania's production is consumed inside the State, processors put in Federal inspection because they cannot determine what portion will move outside the borders.

There are 11 major poultry producing plants in the State, which account for most of the State's commercial poultry meat production. Pennsylvania ranks 12th among all the State's in Broiler production and ninth in Turkeys.

The mandatory Federal inspection program is closely related to the factory system of slaughtering poultry.

"If it were not for the fact that most poultry slaughter is carried out in a relatively small number (about 550, nationally) of large commercial plants, Federal inspection would be extremely expensive," the U. S. agricultural marketing service said in a report.

"Since the individual output of the large commercial slaughtering plants is so great, nearly all must market at least part of their output in interstate commerce," the report added.

Prior to the 1957 act which made Federal inspection mandatory, most processors complied with a voluntary program of U. S. inspection, or had, as in Pennsylvania, rigid State inspection.

The meat condemned represented only a small fraction of all the total slaughtered last year, the agriculture department said.

Birds rejected before slaughter represented 0.24 percent for chicken and 0.13 percent for turkeys. Meat condemnations amounted to 1.53 percent for chicken and 0.86 percent for turkey inspected.

In addition to providing a consumer service, the inspection program will also aid in the collection of economic statistics on the poultry industry.

Statistics are needed particularly this year because of the poor economic situation of the broiler industry.

Beavers Important In Maine Economy

AUGUSTA, Maine (AP) — The beaver, whose pelt became practically a monetary unit in early Colonial days, is still an important Maine natural resource. Trappers have received $100,000 to $250,000 annually in recent years for pelts.

Although their number is only around a third of the estimated 100,000 when the white men came, the "ingenious engineers" still have to be dealt with when their dams plug culverts and flood roads.

But the dams, ranging up to ten feet high and 500 feet long, also provide natural soil and water conservation; favorable habitat for fish, waterfowl and other animals; and water supplies farmers have used for livestock in drought. The ponds provide refuge and aquatic plant feed for moose and deer which also feed on browse material sprouting from stumps of trees the beavers fell.

Gypsy Moth Pest May Be Eliminated

BOSTON, (AP) — Foresters are hopeful that a couple of unromantic scientists will help rid trees of the gypsy moth pest.

How are they going about it? By meddling with the love-life of this persistent pest, which causes millions of dollars damage to crops and trees yearly, according to the Forestry Digest.

Dr. Martin Jacobson, entomology research division, and Dr. B. H. Alexander, agricultural research division, U.S. Department of Agriculture, are working on the problem of producing a synthetic substance closely resembling a secretion by which female gypsy moths lure the males.

If they succeed, the researchers say, the synthetic compound could be used to lure male moths during the mating season to areas where they can be attacked with insecticides.

The red objects turned out to be fishing boats, the submarine turned out to be a tug and the tidal wave didn't turn out at all.

Weeder's Guide

By EARL ARONSON
AP Newsfeatures

Garden advice is only as far away as your telephone in many areas these days.

County agricultural extension offices in some states are offering a relatively new service for home gardeners. Just dial their number and you'll get one minute of helpful recorded information.

For instance, in New York State, Onondaga county Agricultural Agent Donald Hammond has prepared messages giving advice on raising flowers, house plants and shrubs, and on the care of lawns and trees.

The service will continue through the growing season, seven days of the week, any hour of the day.

HAMMOND says that although activities of his department were mainly with the farmers, this service was part of a program to assist home owners with their home ground problems. "This program was initiated after a considerable interest in home grounds was evident due to expanded suburban living," he explains.

In some places messages are changed daily. For example, in New York State's Nassau county the topics included "Controlling Chickweed in Lawns," "Green Tip Apple Spray," "Spring Rose Care," "Cornell Planting Guide," "Lawn Weed Control."

In New Jersey, tree and shrub care is the subject one day, flower gardening the next, vegetable gardening the third, best food buys and menus the fourth, lawn care the rest of the week, including weekends when the musclemen of the family are supposed to be around instead of digging up a golf course.

Other states that have inaugurated recorded garden messages —at least in some counties—are Massachusetts and Pennsylvania.

Your favorite nurseryman, garden center or landscaper can help you get rid of Japanese beetles, which have increased in many sections of the country in recent years.

The Japanese beetle has a one-year life cycle, from the time eggs are laid. The larvae or grubs feed extensively on roots of the grasses in the lawn after the eggs are hatched. In the northeast, the adults usually are around from early June to late September.

After damaging the lawn as a group, the grown up bettle moves on to plants of the rose family and other flowering shrubs and vines.

The easiest way to control the bettle is in the grub or larvae stage. Apply insecticidal materials to turf areas, either in liquid or dust form. When the adult insects lay eggs in treated lawns, the young larvae will be killed shortly after hatching.

But get your neighbors to do the same thing because the adult insect has strong wings and will settle in untreated lawns.

Why all the red tape?
You can understand why we don't sell narcotics without a physician's prescription. But maybe you've wondered why we're so fussy about other things . . . like penicillin, sleeping pills, the new tranquilizers. These potent medications are called "legend drugs" and you have to have a prescription to get them. Reason: Uncontrolled use may do more harm than good. Only your physician knows whether you should use them or not—and, if so, just how much. So we require a prescription. It's a matter of professional ethics and the law. Always it's common sense.

ROOKIE GETS FIRST MAJOR LEAGUE WIN

Banks Clubs 15th Homer, Jim Owens Drops Sixth Verdict

CHICAGO (AP) — Towering Mark Freeman, once a Louisiana State basketball player, registered his first major league victory, scattering four Philadelphia singles as the Chicago Cubs clipped the Phils 6-1 Friday.

The 6-foot-6 inch Freeman was making his second Cub start since he was acquired May 19 from Richmond in a deal with the New York Yankees for pitcher Art Ceccarelli and cash.

Freeman struck out 7, walked 4 and hit 1 batter as he mowed down the last-place Phils who had won four of five previous starts.

The 225-pound right-hander allowed the Phils a single each in the second, in the third—when they scored their run — in the fourth, and in the sixth. The Phils got only one man on base after that when Freeman issued a harmless walk in the eighth.

Ernie Banks aided the 29-year-old "rookie" pitcher by belting a two-run homer in the third, his 15th for his 45th and 46th RBI and the clear-cut lead in both departments.

The loser was Jim Owens (3-6), who was yanked in the fifth and followed by Reuben Gomez and Humberto Robinson.

Freeman, who left LSU as a junior in 1951, had been mainly in the minors since, except for a military hitch. He had a 13-9 record at Seattle last season, including a no-hitter.

After the Cubs scored in the first on Richie Ashburn's single and Ed Bouchee's double, the Phils tied it 1-1 in the third on a walk, an infield out and Tony Taylor's single.

In the bottom of the third, Banks' cracked his homer after a walk and a force-out for a 3-1 Cub lead.

The cubs got two gift runs in the fifth as Taylor erred twice on the same play. Freeman dumped a single into right and Ashburn beat out a bunt. Banks slammed a bounder to short, but Taylor overstrode second on a throw from shortstop Bob Malkmus, missing a force of Ashburn, and then threw wildly past third, both Freeman and Ashburn scoring.

That finished Owens and brought on Gomez, who gave up the sixth Cub run in the seventh on Ashburn's third single, Bob Wills' double, a walk and Bouchee's fly scoring Ashburn.

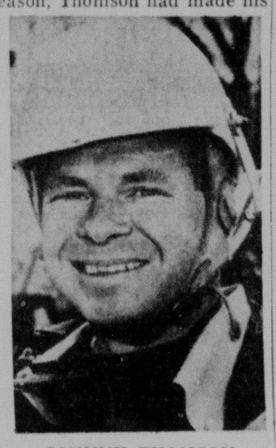
Pender Keeps 'Title' on Split

The Point Spread...

By WARREN HOWARD
(Mercury Sports Writer)

JOHNNY THOMSON, WHO HAS been plagued by more than his share of malfunctions and mechanical failures this year, figures that sooner or later things have got to change. And with this in mind he's getting set to try his luck next Sunday at Langhorne.

In the first three races of the season, Thomson had made his way into the lead when he was forced either to curtail his speed or quit altogether because of car troubles. All three times he was in a position to take the checkered flag.



JOHNNY THOMSON

At Trenton he took the lead on the first lap of a 100-mile National championship event, but a rear end failure forced him out after 23 laps. At Indianapolis on Memorial day the car "swallowed" a valve, and he limped home on three cylinders, finishing fifth.

In his latest effort, at Milwaukee, he took the lead just after the three-quarter mark, but again a mechanical failure forced him to give up at 80 miles. The log, two DNF's, one fifth place.

ODDLY ENOUGH, THOMSON'S Trenton showing came in his first outing since he was injured at Williams Grove in a sprint car race last Fall, and everyone figured him to be taking it easy. Instead, it was the car that broke down.

At Indianapolis he had qualified at what was then the second fastest time on the track. Bill Hurtubise later cast both his and Eddie Sachs' record efforts into the shadows with a sensational almost 150-mph qualifying mark.

Just three years ago however, Thomson set a record on the Langhorne oval, when he became the first man to complete a 100-mile National championship race on a mile track in better than 100 miles per hour, or less than 60 minutes.

The time was 59 minutes, 53.74 seconds, or 100.174 mph. Next Sunday he hopes to better this mark and turn in his first victory of the year. It would be a lot to assume that he could still win the National title, but he isn't too far behind to catch up.

* * *

THOMSON INCIDENTALLY, considers the Langhorne oval his favorite. "I like it because it's a complete oval, and it's dirt. I'm especially fond of dirt, because, while a rookie could make a good showing on asphalt, it takes a little more experience to win on dirt.

"I like Langhorne because there are no straights," he continues. "You're in one continuous broad slide, so you have to be on your P's and Q's all the time. It's a bit more of a test," says the Boyertown pilot.

Thomson didn't compete in the "twin 50s" at Langhorne earlier this year, as per the wishes of the owner of the championship car which he drives. This was another favorite event of his however.

Last year, on the same oval, Thomson had a spectacular accident in which he hurdled the guard rail and overturned after going down an embankment. He walked away from the crash however, with only a few bruises for his trouble.

"I SEEM TO get in more trouble up there than anywhere else," he says, "and it's still my favorite track." This coming from the man who is said to have a "nodding acquaintance" with every guard rail in the country.

Thomson, only recently returned from a trip to Massachusetts, where he had left his two sons during the Memorial day race at Indianapolis, has twice won the Eastern title—in 1954 and 1958. He was the third place finisher in the USAC point standings last year.

A rumor is out that Thomson won't do much racing for the rest of the year. He has given up the sprint cars, and will confine his rides to the championship trail. A place among those 18 starters next Sunday is the immediate goal however.

Then the plan is to do something about winning one.

MIDDLE, LATE POINTS EARN DIVIDED NOD

Sugar Ray Beaten After Scoring Early Lead

BOSTON (AP) — Paul Pender proved himself the champion over 40-year-old Sugar Ray Robinson Friday night by successfully defending his limited version of the World middleweight title on a split 15-round decision.

Shaking off the best punches that Robinson could throw in the early stages of the bout, Pender took command in the middle rounds and stood off a frantic desperation finish by the bedraggled Sugar Man.

Both judges had Pender, a 29-year-old Brookline, Mass, favorite, out front by a comfortable margin.

Referee Jim McCarron cast a surprising 146-144 ballot for Robinson. Judge Jim Carrig had it 149-138 for Pender and Judge Johnny Savko 147-142 for the local boy. The AP card was 144-141 in favor of Pender.

WHEN PENDER dethroned Sugar Ray Jan. 22 in the same Boston Garden ring on a highly disputedly split decision, there were many dissenting shouts from ringside. This time the vote for Pender was extremely popular.

Robinson's slip surely was showing. Time after time he tried to pull the trigger on his right hand lead but it usually missed fire and sputtered harmlessly over Pender's head.

In the fifth round, Robinson opened with a long right to the side of the head that shook Pender and brought a spray of water from his hair. But he couldn't follow up soon enough and let his man get away.

From the sixth round on, Pender's tactics of "push pull and shove" paid off. He would beat Robinson more often than not with a left hook. Then he would move in close and beat a tatoo on Robinson's unprotected side with his free right hand. Time after time referee McCarron had to warn both for rabbit punching. Robinson drew warnings to "keep them up" in the sixth round.

THE VICTORY left Pender the 160-pound champ in Massachusetts, New York and Europe. Gene Fullmer is recognized by the National Boxing association which stripped Robinson of his crown May 4, 1959 long before he lost the two-state version to Pender. Pender came in exactly at the class limit of 160 pounds. Robinson was a pound and a half lighter at 158½ pounds.

The crowd of 8,422 which paid a gross of $67,656, far below expectations, rose and cheered in the final round.

A desperate Robinson, who appeared to sense he needed a knockout to win, was flinging them from left field and trying to bull his man around the ring.

In the final frantic seconds, the two went through the ropes with Pender on the bottom and Robinson on top. Referee McCarron had to help Pender back through the ropes.

Robinson, a bedraggled caricature of the Sugar Ray who used to be, almost fell on his back in the 13th when he missed a wild right and staggered backward into the ropes.

Dotterer's Grand-Slam Homer Leads Redlegs to 4-3 Win Over Dodgers

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Cincinnati got only three hits but one was a grand slam home run by Dutch Dotterer and it was enough to bring the Redlegs a 4-3 victory over Los Angeles Friday night, despite two homers by Dodger catcher Norm Sherry.

The victory was the fifth straight for Cincinnati over the Dodgers, who haven't beaten the Redlegs since last September.

Right-hander Bob Purkey, who retired 11 straight men before the Dodgers got a hit, picked up his fifth victory in seven decisions. He gave up six hits before he was relieved by Bill Henry in the eighth.

Left-hander Sandy Koufax, the Dodger starter, lasted an inning and a third and a third and suffered his eighth loss. He has won one.

Dotterer got his grand slam off Koufax in the second, driving the ball well up into the left field seats. Koufax had walked three men.

Norm Sherry produced all the Los Angeles runs, driving in one with his first homer in the seventh and two with his second in the ninth. He hit the first off Purkey, the second off Henry.

Jones' 5-Hit Shutout, Mays' Homer Lead Giants' -5-0 Win Over Braves

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Willie Mays erupted from a batting slump with two singles and a three-run homer Friday night off Milwaukee's Warran Spahn as right-hander Sam Jones won his eighth game for San Francisco with a 5-0 five-hit shutout.

Mays also stole two bases as he enjoyed his perfect night at bat before a Candlestick Park crowd of 36,535. In his fourth time at bat he drew a walk from reliever Bob Rush.

The triumph moved the Giants again within one game of the National League leading Pittsburgh which lost to St. Louis 9-6. Jones struck out eight and walked four in registering his third shutout of the campaign.

Mays, who had gone hitless for 19 times at bat before hitting a single in his final appearance Thursday started the Giants en route to victory when he hit safely to open the fourth. Orlando Cepeda singled him to third and Willie Kirkland singled to right, knocking in the run.

Cards Rip Bucs, On Big 5th, 9-6

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals exploded with five runs in the fifth inning Friday night to beat the first-place Pittsburgh Pirates 9-6 as Larry Jackson staggered to his seventh straight victory.

Bob Duliba stopped the Bucs in relief in the seventh and eighth but yielded a run with two out in the ninth. Lindy McDaniel retired Dick Groat with two on to end the game.

The Cardinals' Ken Boyer pounded his 15th homer to tie Chicago's Ernie Banks for the major league lead. Don Hoak and Smoky Burgess each hit his fourth for the Pirates.

During the big fifth, the fifth-place Cardinals collected seven hits, six of which came in succession after two were out.

Minneapolis-Honeywell is beginning to make its presence felt in City league softball circles.

Friday night at Memorial park, the Honeywellers reeled off their fourth straight success—a 7-5 edge over Holy Trinity—to come abreast of C & K, deadlocking the league's second place position.

A big fifth inning did it for the Honeywellers after Holy Trinity had taken a 3-2 lead.

Doubles by Stan Osterpower and Gordie Wampler plus Barry Gable's single and a pair of Trinity errors poured four runs into the winners' hopper.

Osterpower paced an 11-hit assault with three in four trips.

Bob Kulp went all the way for Honeywell to rack up his second win. Al Roen was saddled with the loss.

Back Injury Forces Ingo to Skip Running

GROSSINGER, N. Y. (AP)—Ingemar Johansson skipped road work again Friday. It was the third successive morning the heavyweight champion decided against taking his running exercise.

Johansson is favoring a strained back muscle. It was a recurrence of an ailment he suffered last year about the same stage of his training for his first fight with Floyd Patterson.

Birds End Losing Ways With 5-4 Win Over A's

BALTIMORE (AP) — Brooks Robinson's third hit knocked in the winning run in the eighth inning Friday night as the Baltimore Orioles broke a four game losing streak with a 5-4 victory over Kansas City.

Baltimore rapped 13 hits, including a double and two singles by Ron Hansen that accounted for two RBI and helped reliever Hal Brown to his sixth victory against two losses. The young shortstop boosted his American League leading RBI total to 40 with his blasting.

Gene Woodling had a pair of doubles and Jackie Brandt hit a triple in the Baltimore offensive against losing reliever Marty Kutyna (1-2) and starter Dick Hall.

Dick Williams drove in three of the Athletics' runs, two on a first inning single after the Orioles' Steve Barber got off to a wobbly start by walking the first three batters. Williams also drove in Hank Bauer in the third on a sacrifice fly.

Barber was fighting for control all night. He issued 10 bases on balls and had a wild pitch but managed to leave 11 A's stranded, two each in four separate innings.

In other Fellowship games, Pottstown First Brethren edged Linfield, 12-10, in a free-scoring affair and Parker Ford nipped Pughtown Baptist, 10-9.

Ed Miller led the 21-hit Brownback attack with a perfect four-for-four and three RBI. The Painter boys, Jessie and Fred, and Bob Peiffer contributed three blows each.

Bob Miller and Bob Bauer homered for the winners.

First Brethren scored twice in the last of the sixth to gain its slim victory margin after both matched production during the first five and one-half frames.

Roger Raspen set down Frosty with one hit Friday night at Memorial park as the Shamrocks picked up a 5-0 Junior league win.

It was the third straight victory for the undefeated 'Rocks who lead the league by one-half game over Kenilworth, the only other club with a perfect record.

Raspen controlled the Frosty offense throughout with 14 strikeouts. The elongated hurler walked but two and gave up a single to Paul Yonkovitch.

The Shamrocks managed just three hits off losing pitcher Bob Hartenstein but tallied twice in the first, once in the third and twice more in the last inning.

Ken Stutz had two hits for the Shamrocks and Raspen got into the offensive picture with a pair of RBI.

Detroit Rips Nats, 7-4 On Early Scores

WASHINGTON (AP)—The surging Detroit Tigers got a four-run jump on Washington in the first inning and went on to defeat the Senators 7-4 Friday night behind Jim Bunning and Hank Aguirre.

It was the fifth straight victory for the fourth-place Tigers and the eighth in the last 10 games.

A three-run homer by Steve Bilko highlighted the Detroit assault which chased loser Chuck Stobbs in the first. The Tigers made it 7-0 with one in the third and two in the fourth before the Senators could get on the board.

A two-run single by Bob Allison featured a three-run Washington volley in the fifth. When Allison socked a leadoff homer, his seventh, in the eighth and Julio Becquer followed with a triple, Detroit Manager Jimmie Dykes yanked Bunning. Aguirre came in to retire the Senators with no further damage.

Before his departure, Bunning fanned eight batters, bringing his strikeout total for the season to 74.

Young Pilots Bid For Laurels at Hatfield Tonight

Several young upstarts are giving the old racing pros a run for the money in the early season point race at Hatfield speedway.

Tommy McAndrews, Allentown, a comparative newcomer to the racing fraternity, will seek his second straight feature victory when action returns to the third-mile clay strip this evening at 8 o'clock.

McAndrews, and Eddy Horn, 23-year-old Chalfont driver, both are in contention for the All-Star Racing Club point lead, along with veteran Dick Havens, New Hope; and Harry Moore, Pottstown, former champion.

Moore, of course, has been a headliner for more than a decade and his association with owner Wayne Karl, Limerick, has proven a tough combination on the raceway. Others competing in the modified division will be George Sleight, invader from Easton who finished second last Saturday; Rocky Ewing, Jack Rudy, Mose Moore, to name only a few.

In the Bell Racing Club's strictly stocks, George Dilworth, North Wales, fresh from a feature triumph Saturday, will be the heavy favorite. Dilworth finished second in point standings last season.

He'll be running against a big field, including George Rounsavill, Doylestown; Dick Wilkie, Cedars; Bob Wilkie, Plymouth Meeting; Bill Moore, Montgomeryville; Walt Murphy, Norristown; Blaine Sadler, Phoenixville, and others.

YANKS SHADE INDIANS 4-3 ON MANTLE HR

Eighth-Inning Blow Ends Tribe Win String At Five

NEW YORK (AP) — Mickey Mantle's eighth inning home run, his fourth in three games, cracked a tie and ended Cleveland's winning streak at five Friday night as the New York Yankees defeated the first-place Indians 4-3 in the opener of a four-game series.

The loss, third in 10 games for the Indians, cut their American League lead to a half-game over the Baltimore Orioles, who defeated Kansas City 5-4.

It was the fourth straight success for the third-place Yankees and their sixth in seven games, pushing them within 2½ games of the Tribe.

Right-hander Art Ditmar (4-3) was the winner, blanking the Indians on two hits over the last four innings after blowing a 3-1 lead.

Mantle's shot, his 12th of the year, tagged Dick Stigman with his third straight defeat. The southpaw reliever now has a 2-4 record, although he retired 10 of the 13 men he faced after relieving starter Larry Locke in the fifth inning.

The Yankees scored their other three in the third, on a walk, a double by Cletis Boyer and singles by Ditmar, Hector Lopez and Mantle.

Locke, who shut out Detroit on six hits in his last start—his first game since being recalled from the minors, then got out of a bases-loaded jam in the fourth, when Ditmar hit into a pitcher-home-first doubleplay.

The Indians out-hit the Yankees 10-0, scoring in the first on Jim Piersall's leadoff, first-pitch triple and a single by Ken Aspromonte. They got single runs again in the fourth and fifth, with Kuenn's double tying it 3-all.

Perkiomen Yanks Win On Bricker No-Hitter

Gary Bricker's no-hit pitching and an RBI single by Bill Fenstermacher gave the Perkiomen Yankees a extra-inning 3-2 Connie Mack win over Perkiomen Township (Graterford) Friday night.

Bricker fanned 15 batters, but a walk and two errors gave Perkiomen Township two seventh inning runs in the Perkiomen Valley league contest, sending the game into overtime.

The Yanks had scored single runs in the first and sixth off Paul Whary, who took the loss on a five-hitter in which he fanned 13.

Bill Kline walked in the eighth setting the stage for Fenstermacher's blow.

Jurges Gets Ax As Bosox Pilot

BOSTON (AP)—Billy Jurges was fired Friday as manager of the Boston Red Sox.

The Red Sox made the announcement in a prepared release only minutes before Friday night's Boston-Chicago game.

Jurges was given a leave of absence as the Red Sox manager only two days ago. At that time, the Red Sox said he was ordered to take a rest by doctors.

Jurges, now at his home in Arlington, Va., was reported under severe strain due to the slump that had sent his Red Sox to the bottom of the American league.

VETERAN COACH Del Baker was named at that time as interim manager. The Red Sox announcement Friday night said Baker will continue in that capacity.

No mention was made of a permanent successor to Jurges.

Jurges, a one-time National league great at shortstop, took over the Red Sox field generalship from Mike Higgins in midseason last year.

He took a last place team and brought it to a fifth place finish.

The Red Sox started this season in good shape, rising to second place early in the season. Then they went into a tailspin—including a 10 game losing streak—and there were rumors Jurges might be fired.

Big 4th Earns Chisox 13-3 Triumph

BOSTON (AP) — The Chicago White Sox jumped on faltering Boston pitching for a six-run burst in the fourth inning Friday night and romped to a 13-3 rout of the down-trodden Red Sox.

The Boston loss, its seventh straight and 24 in the last 29 games, came after the Red Sox announced that Billy Jurges had been fired as manager. Jurges was relieved of his command two days ago when he was ordered by doctors to take a rest.

Red Sox starter and loser Tom Brewer (4-6) had allowed only one hit and had a 2-1 lead when the White Sox opened the fourth. He walked two of the first three men he faced.

A single by Gene Freese, Jim Landis' double, a sacrifice fly and consecutive singles by Nellie Fox, Luis Aparicio, Minnie Minoso and Roy Sievers brought in six runs and wrapped it up.

Freese had three singles and a double to lead Chicago's 18-hit attack. The White Sox' newly acquired Russ Kemmerer (3-3) went the distance for the victory.

Ted Williams hit a solo homer for Boston in the sixth. It was the 496th of his career.

Sox Deal Stephens for Birds' Tasby

BALTIMORE, (AP)—The Baltimore Orioles Friday recalled pitcher Billy Hoeft from the Miami Marlins of the International league.

The veteran left-hander, a 20-game winner for Detroit in 1956, had a 4-5 record with Miami this season. Manager Paul Richards asked that he be brought to Baltimore in an attempt to solve the Orioles' bullpen problem, a factor in the club's four straight losses this week.

Hoeft's recall was announced only a few hours after Baltimore traded outfielder Willie Tasby for outfielder Gene Stephens of the Boston Red Sox.

The lefthanded hitting Stephens is expected to be used in right field according to Richards. Stephens had appeared in 36 games with the Red Sox this season batting .229 and driving in nine runs.

During seven seasons with the Red Sox, Stephens was used mainly as fill in for Ted Williams during the late innings.

Tasby was one of the American leagues top rookies last season when he batted .250 in 142 games.

The 26-year-old righthanded hitter hit only .212 with the Orioles this season and drove in but three runs. He is one year younger than Stephens.

Market Rally Loses Steam; Experts Doubting A Renewal

By JACK LEFLER
AP Business News Editor

NEW YORK (AP) — When the stock market's sharp rally ran out of steam as the week ended, some analysts raised doubts about an immediate renewal.

Earlier this week, when the market was surging, there were predictions the action meant the beginning of the traditional summer advance.

Joseph E. Granville commented Friday that the market had done the work of two months in six days.

That much energy, he said, "borrows heavily from what might have been the start of a summer rally. That rally now is in doubt."

* * *

Granville concluded that, "All technical earmarks of rally termination were in classic evidence, classic in that the combination of technical circumstances in evidence over the past few days underscored the similarities with previous rally periods which preceded important declines."

He said the significant technical highlights included the inability of the Dow Jones rail average to better the 146.56 level on a closing basis.

* * *

B. K. Thurlow, of Winslow, Chou & Stetson, considers it a curious feature of the market that rotating strength seems more and more to coincide with rotating weakness.

This, he says, suggests that new money is not coming into the market in any quantity but that speculative funds are rushing from group to group in search of quick profit.

"This is not the stuff that major bull market advances are made on," he adds, "and seems rather to reflect a reaction from the kind of market sentiment that prevailed earlier this year.

"Most observers seem to expect a strong market continuing through Election Day. We are willing to go out on a limb and predict the recovery will hold at least through July 4 but are too cautious to try to see farther ahead."

Oil Statistics Co. points out that continued selling pressure has placed many oil stocks under 1957-58 lows and at levels of 1955.

With current dividend payments, the yields on many of the highest quality stocks are very satisfactory at five and six per cent, the analyst says.

"Earnings in 1960 should show some modest improvements so most dividend rates appear safe.

"Successful cost reduction efforts and curtailed capital expenditures may even mean some increased payouts. In terms of capital gain prospects, the heaviest liquidation is probably over and some gradual accumulation is in evidence.

"However, until the downtrend is reversed, we would concentrate on buying in the specialty issues."

the services in the rear of the fire house.

The company was formed Jan. 15, 1910, and two meetings later the organization was 79 members strong. Stanley G. Flagg 3d was chosen president.

Four years later the organization had a home, at the Vine and Rice street location it now occupies, and a pumper. The pumper was given its severest test in 1918 when it pumped for 12 straight hours at a lumber yard fire.

In 1925, another truck was purchased and in 1936 a $40,000 addition, including four bowling alleys, was constructed. Three more trucks were purchased since then and all except the original piece of apparatus are still in operation.

Chief of the company is Delmar Egolf, and assistant chiefs are David Boone, Raymond Gofus and Steven Surman. Raymond Egolf is chief engineer.
